

1. Read the unabridged version of All Quiet on the Western Front by Erich Maria Remarque.
2. Also read biographical information about the author and write a two-page summary (typed, print size 12, double spaced).
3. Read background information about World War I and write a two-page summary (typed, print size 12, double spaced).
4. Be prepared to take a general knowledge test on All Quiet on the Western Front on Friday, August 26.

Other activities will also be completed in class requiring a basic understanding of this novel. You will need to bring your copy of the novel for these.

This novel should be available at many new and used book stores in your area.