

Psychology I & II
Syllabus
Classroom Policies and Procedures

Mrs. Camacho

Course Objective:

This course is designed to provide an overview of the major areas in the field of psychology. Expect hands-on learning being as I believe active learning is the best way to learn. Upon completion of this course, you should be able to identify the major theories, terminology, principles, and methods in the following areas:

Psych I:

- *The field of Psychology
- *Methods of Psychology
- *Brain, Body, and Behavior
- *Consciousness –Sleep & Dreams
- *Sensation and Perception
- *Motivation and Emotion

Psych II:

- *Learning
- *Intelligence - Testing
- *Adolescence
- *Personality Theories
- *Stress and Health
- *Psychological Disorders
- *Therapy and Change

Materials Needed:

- ~~*3 ring notebook (can share with other subjects)~~
- ~~*Pen/pencil~~
- ~~*Paper~~
- ~~*ISN book (spiral notebook)~~

* Due to Covid-19 we will be completing work on computers. You will need a mask in class.

Grades:

- 10-25 points = Daily assignments/Homework
- 50-150 points = Projects
- 50 points = Quizzes
- 100 points = Tests

Formative assessments (assignments, homework...etc) will be 40% of the student's grade.

Summative assessments (tests and major projects) will be 60%.

Test re-takes are allowed. The re-take can be scheduled ONLY after remediation has occurred with the teacher. Remediation could include extra work and assignments related to the concepts they are trying to master.

Grading Scale:

A = 90-100

B = 80-89

C = 70-79

D = 60-69

F = 0-59

DHS rules:

Students are expected to follow all DHS rules and act appropriately in class. Students who choose not to do so will receive the prescribed consequences, which may include lunch detention, a phone call home, or a discipline referral.

Classroom Procedures:

- It is the student's responsibility to get all make-up work from the teacher upon their return to school. A note should be handed in to be signed.
- When taking tests, remain seated and quiet until all students are finished with their test.
- Do not line up at the door before the bell.

In addition:

This course deals with many sensitive issues. Rudeness or disrespect will not be tolerated.