

Here are your announcements for Monday, November 16th

The annual SGA Toy Drive is underway! Join with your 5th period class to win a pizza party! Or you can donate by yourself by dropping off toys in the Media Center. Toys should be unwrapped, new or gently used, and preferably for children aged 9 to 17. The deadline to donate is December 16th. Help brighten someone's holidays, donate a toy!

Report Cards will be distributed today in 7th period. Parents and students can access grades through Vportal.

Bright Futures Applications being accepted. If you would like help, feel free to make an appointment with Mrs. Nehrig in Student services.

We resume testing re-takes after Thanksgiving for students who did not test last year.

EOC exams in US History, Biology and Algebra are REQUIRED for graduation. ALL Volusia Live, Volusia Online Learning, and face-to-face students must participate. Be ready Bulldogs!

Congratulations to Bulldog Cheer. They won the silver medal in their first competition of the season at this year's Cobra Classic.

Great work by Bulldog Football on their dominating shut out over University Friday Night. The Bulldogs take on the Seminoles this FRIDAY at home at 7:30pm. Tickets go on sale at GoFan TOMORROW at noon. Passes are not accepted for playoff games. Let's sell out this game! Go Dogs!
