Course Description
This course studies the political, social, and economic history of the United States from the Civil War to current day. There will be a state mandated End of Course (EOC) examination for this class. This exam will count for 30% of the student’s final grade.

Canvas
All the course content, assignments, and assessments will be available on Canvas. This is also where all our work will be submitted, either as an electronic document or as an image of your handwritten work. Each week’s overview will be posted on Monday and will include an overview of the week’s lessons/assignments/quizzes. We will go over our course Canvas page during the first week of school.

Summative Assessment (Exam) Retake Policy
You will have the opportunity to remediate summative assessments in this class. In order to qualify for remediation, you must have submitted all assignments for that unit of study. Reach out to me for additional assistance including tutoring and other remediation opportunities.

Late Work Policy
Late work will negatively affect your grade in this class. If you need additional time to complete an assignment, reach out to me as soon as possible and we can discuss your options.

Academic Honesty
Cheating or academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. DeLand High’s school academic honesty policy will be enforced in this class. This also applies to unauthorized cell phone/device usage during assessments. Please review your Code of Conduct handbook for details. Work found to contain plagiarized material will result in a 0 on the assignment for all parties involved.

Cell Phone Use
Cell phones are not to be out during class unless the instructor specifically states that you may use them. The same goes for wearing headphones during class time. The first offence will be a warning. Further offences will result in disciplinary action including a student-teacher conference, parent contact, or a disciplinary referral.

Discipline
All DeLand High School policies and procedures will be enforced in this class. Please review your Code of Conduct handbook for details.
